

Sandra Guice Strickland

November 11, 1945 - January 1, 2025

Sandra Jay Strickland, 79, passed peacefully on January 1, 2025 surrounded by her loving family.

Born on November 11, 1945, Sandy was dedicated to her faith and her family. She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, wife, and aunt.

Sandy loved to spend time in church and civic-related activities. A long-time member of the Geraldine First United Methodist Church where she supported children's choir, Bible School, MYF Youth and Sunday School, followed by many years of attending Geraldine First Baptist Church.

Beloved wife of 20 years to Glenn Strickland, Sandy was also the devoted mother of Judson Scott Guice (Candida), Christopher Lee Guice (Caryn Lee), and James Michael Strickland (Brooke). She was the loving and proud grandmother of Caitlin and Alec Guice, Kaiden Lee, and Mackenzie, Jaylee, Willa, and Ellie Strickland.

Sandy was a loving sister to Carolyn Joyce Life and a special aunt to Suzy Life and Sharon Life-Putnam (Eric), Leslie and Ellen Life-Putnam

Preceded in death by father J.B. Strange, mother Opal Jones Sampson, and sister Toni Rachael Sampson.

Services will be held at the Geraldine First Baptist Church on Sunday, January 5, 2025. The family will receive friends at 12:30 PM, followed by the Memorial Service at 2:30 led by Pastor Andy Brown. The graveside service will take place at Geraldine Cemetery.

Sandy's love for family and friends will be greatly missed.

The family expresses special appreciation to Hospice Family Care of Huntsville for their loving care. Please consider donations to this great organization in lieu of flowers.
