“ I have so many memories of Mawmaw I haven't been sure which ones to share. Growing up I was probably at her house more than I was at my own. Her and Pawpaw were my favorite people. I was always out in the garden with her or she was teaching me how to cook, or how to can vegetables. I remember always watching CMT with her in the mornings, before I got on the school bus and her soaps in the afternoon when I got home. We sang together and laughed together. Her couch was where I took my afternoon naps. I don't remember ever being unhappy when I was around Mawmaw, she was full of so much joy and love. Her door was always open, and you never left hungry. She loved taking care of people. She was my hero and my role model.

“ This woman was the kindest and most loving woman that I have ever had the pleasure of loving. She gave her love unconditionally and without reserve. I've never known a more hard working and sharing person. I had the pleasure of being a part of her family for almost 30 years and she was just one of those persons who never had a limited amount of love to give unconditionally. She is at rest in heaven now in our heavenly Fathers arms and rejoicing with her family members that have gone on before. Her spirit and love will always be with us in our hearts and the influence she had on our lives will always be with us. She was truly a beautiful person inside and out with a heart as big as the moon. I have and always will love you Sarah Bryant. You stepped in and taught me things at a young age, after I lost my own Mother. Thank you for always being there for me when I needed it the most. You rest easy in our Fathers arms and I will see you again one day!
